DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1,2, 12, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gupta(6,778,024 of record).

The reference by Gupta et al describes an integrated PLL (see figure 3) and with VCO, see background, and figures 2 and 3, with a sensing and compensation circuit(200) which as disclosed in col. 3, lines 10-25, senses when a voltage to frequency change in the operating characteristic(performance curve) of the VCO and compensates with trim signal generator(400) to allow for any deviation due to aging and other effects, see background and cols. 3-4.

Art Unit: 2817

Please note that col. 4, lines 5-20 further describes the monitoring of the tune signal to sense when a voltage threshold is exceeded that is a result of the operating characteristics changing, including due to aging...

The method steps being inherent.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 3-11, 14-20 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

With regards to the reference not teaching a sensor, the examiner disagrees as the sensing is done via the monitoring of the tune signal to sense when a voltage threshold is exceeded that is a result of the operating characteristics changing, including due to aging... Please note that col. 4, lines 5-20.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
